

2011 PHS English Department Summer Reading Program Info

Checking out books: Copies of all summer reading books will be available for students to check out starting on Wednesday, 6/8. Students will be held accountable for any book that is not returned. Books can be checked out immediately before or after school. No student should be interrupting a teacher's class to check out a book.

- Texts for all incoming Sophomore English classes will be available in Mr. Craig's room (2105)
- Texts for all incoming Junior English classes will be available in Mrs. Maher's room (2109)
- Texts for CP English 4, Honors 4, and A.P English will be available in Mr. Farrish's room (2113)
- The summer reading assignment for our Shakespeare course is still being finalized. Listen to morning announcements for further information.

Book Availability: Limited copies of each book are available. Books will be distributed on a first-come, first-serve basis. To ensure that you have the opportunity to read the books that you are most interested in, check out your books as soon as possible.

Grading Policy: Summer reading assignments will count as a test grade. A scoring rubric has been attached to each assignment.

Late Assignments: All summer reading assignments will be collected on the first day of school. If a student fails to turn in the assignment on time, your final grade will be reduced. . If the assignment is not turned by Monday, 9/12, it will not be accepted.
