A Note From Mr. Levanto:

Boy, have we had some bouts with winter weather already this season! I know I'm already looking forward to warmer weather! As a result of slick roads and sidewalks in addition to cold temperatures, many parents opt to drive their children into school each day. If you fall into this category, here are some things to remember: Please keep your vehicle in the upper parking lot — cars are not allowed at all in the bus lane. Students are admitted into the building at 8:45 (10:15 on days we are delayed due to weather). Unless you have made special arrangements with a member of our staff, please do not bring kids to school before then. Also, any students arriving after 9:00 are considered tardy and must be signed in. If, at any time, you arrive at school and see no staff members out on the walkway, you MUST walk your child in to school. Lets keep kids safe! Thanks and give us a call if you have questions or need help. Enjoy February!

Reading In Grade Two!

The second graders in Mrs. Barkhouse's and Mrs. Wakely's classes recently engaged in a cooperative learning activity. After having read The Secret Life of Trees by Chiara Chevallier, they worked to find details from the story. They used the Author's Chair to share their learning together.
